

LIBRARY CIRCULATION GUIDELINES

The College Library Services Office shall provide borrowing privileges to eligible library users and ensure the proper circulation, use, and accountability of library materials.

1. Borrowing Privileges

Bona fide students and permanent employees of the College may borrow library materials upon presentation of a valid identification card.

Type of Borrower	No. of Book	Loaning Period	Renewal Period
Student	5	7 days	7 days
Permanent Faculty	20	1 semester	1 semester
Permanent Staff	10	1 month	1 month

2. Borrowing and Use of Library Materials

- Books from the Circulation and Filipiniana Sections may be borrowed for outside use.
- General Reference Books, Periodicals, and Theses shall be for library use only and may not be taken outside the library.
- Borrowers shall observe the prescribed number of books and loan period according to their borrower category.
- All borrowing and returning transactions shall be processed and recorded through LUNTIAN, the College Library Services Office's system, to ensure accurate monitoring of borrowed materials and borrower accountabilities.
- Upon borrowing, the borrower shall receive a printed transaction receipt and an email receipt through LUNTIAN containing the details of the materials borrowed and their corresponding due dates.

GLN--LIB-002

- Borrowers shall receive email reminders through LUNTIAN regarding the due dates and return of their borrowed library materials.
- Borrowers shall inspect books upon borrowing and immediately report any missing pages, damage, or mutilation to the library staff. Any unreported damage discovered upon return shall be the responsibility of the borrower.
- Unauthorized withdrawal of books or other library materials shall be considered an act of theft and shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Student Handbook.

3. Returning and Renewal of Library Materials

- All borrowed materials shall be returned on or before the prescribed due date.
- Borrowed materials may be renewed according to the prescribed renewal period, subject to their status and availability.
- Borrowers shall receive email reminders regarding the return of their borrowed library materials.
- Deliberately keeping library materials beyond the prescribed period for personal use may result in the suspension or cancellation of borrowing privileges.

4. Overdue Library Materials

- Student borrowers who fail to return borrowed library materials on or before the due date shall be charged an overdue fine of Five Pesos (₱5.00) per day for each overdue library material.
- The overdue fine shall apply to student borrowers only. Faculty and staff shall not be charged an overdue fine but are expected to return borrowed materials within the prescribed loan period.
- Repeated failure to return library materials on time may result in the suspension of borrowing privileges.
- Borrowers shall receive email reminders regarding overdue or unreturned library materials.

5. Lost and Damaged Library Materials

- Lost library materials shall be reported immediately to the College Library Services Office. For student borrowers, the accumulation of overdue fines shall stop on the date the material is officially reported lost.
- A lost book shall be replaced with a copy of the same title and edition.
- If a replacement copy of the same title and edition is unavailable, the borrower shall provide another book of a related title and subject with the latest available copyright or edition, subject to the approval of the College Library Services Office.
- Library materials that are damaged but can still be repaired shall be subject to the appropriate rebinding or repair fee, to be shouldered by the borrower.
- Materials damaged beyond repair shall be subject to replacement.
- Any borrowed book that remains unreturned at the end of the semester shall be considered lost and shall be subject to the applicable replacement provisions.

6. Library Clearance and Accountabilities

- Students shall settle all library accountabilities as part of the required clearance process.
- Job Order personnel shall settle their library accountabilities and secure library clearance upon resignation or separation from service.
- The College Library Services Office shall coordinate with the Human Resource Office to verify whether separating personnel have unsettled library accountabilities.
- Library clearance shall be issued only after all borrowed materials, fines, replacement obligations, and other library accountabilities have been fully settled.
- The College Library Services Office shall maintain appropriate records of borrowing transactions, returns, and library accountabilities.
