WHEREAS, the parties believe that a mutually beneficial partnership can be established to achieve the common goal of promoting human rights education.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. Project Goals and Objectives

The parties agree to collaborate on a human rights education project in the Philippines with the following goals and objectives:

1. To raise awareness about human rights principles and promote a culture of tolerance and non-discrimination through the use of the COLEGA manual in teaching learner's rights.
2. To develop critical thinking, problem-solving, and communication skills that are essential for effective human rights advocacy;
3. To encourage individuals to take action to protect and promote human rights, both individually and collectively; and
4. To create a more just, equitable, and peaceful environment where everyone's rights are respected and protected.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

FIRST PARTY shall:

1. Integrate human rights education through the use of the COLEGA manual into the existing curriculum across relevant disciplines, and develop and implement courses, modules, and workshops focusing on human rights topics.
2. Facilitate training and capacity-building workshops for faculty members on human rights education.
3. Promote student involvement in human rights activities, including debates, workshops, and community outreach programs. Establish a student human rights club or organization to foster active engagement and awareness.
4. Encourage and support research initiatives related to human rights issues. Facilitate the publication of student and faculty research on human rights topics .
5. Provide regular updates to the GO-HRE on the progress of human rights education initiatives.
6. Agree to manage the project and ensure that funds or resources are used efficiently and effectively.
