7.7 Restrictions and other Regulations

- No College officer, faculty member, or employee is allowed to publicly disclose or discuss the proceedings and decisions of the Governing Board before they are officially released for publication unless granted permission by the President or the Governing Board

- College officers, faculty, or employees are prohibited from publicly making accusations or complaints against any fellow officer or employee, whether related to their official duties or private life. Such complaints must be directed to the appropriate College Committees duly authorized to facilitate proper action.

- Faculty members are prohibited from entering into any agreements with any College students involving money, property, or other valuable items that could potentially influence the student's academic performance.

- No textbook, whether in printed or duplicated form, should be designated as essential teaching material for any class unless it has received approval from the library advisory committee, which will be established by the President.

- Any faculty member can invite a guest speaker who is not officially affiliated with the College to give a lecture or presentation on a topic to their class or a student group, provided they have obtained permission from the Dean or VP for Academics

- Faculty and employees may engage in research projects sponsored by external organizations with the President's consent. In such cases, proper credit must be given to the College along with the sponsoring organization when publishing the research findings.

- Any faculty member or employee participating in research activities outside of the College should ensure that such involvement does not disrupt or compromise their primary responsibilities. However, this involvement will be considered as part of their official workload.

. Solicitations. The City College of Cagayan de Oro prohibits solicitation during scheduled working hours, including the general public selling of retail goods to employees or trying to sell any time to another employee or any other solicitation determined to be inappropriate by the City College. Regular vendors of the City College will conduct their business through authorized City College personnel. Employees may participate in generally acceptable solicitations during their scheduled break or lunch time. Solicitations for special causes and by partners of the City College may be allowed but only after clearance with the administration ensuring that classes and normal operations are not compromised.

It is important to note that solicitation letters should be properly and systematically monitored, and the solicitation of funds or merchandise from off-campus groups of business firms is not allowed

B. Business Gifts or Gratuities. City College has a policy on solicitation, gifts, and gratuities that prohibits employees from soliciting or accepting gifts from current or potential vendors, contractors, their agents, local businesses, City College departments, or others with whom there is a potential or ongoing business or professional relationship. The policy states that certain gifts may be acceptable, such as gifts, meals, and accommodations of a reasonable and normal value up to a certain amount provided to all employees, but cash gifts are generally considered unacceptable unless provided in the form of an employee bonus. The policy also requires gifts to be approved by a supervisor.

It is important to note that certain industries, such as pharmaceutical and medical devices, have specific guidelines around gifting.

The City College policy is in place to ensure that employees demonstrate the highest standards of ethics and conduct in relation to potential and existing vendors, suppliers, job applicants, and other business stakeholders.

C. Private Communications. The City College has policies in place regarding the use of personal devices during business hours. Personal calls or text messages must be kept to a minimum and should not interfere with an employee's work.

Employees are encouraged to make such calls during their breaks or lunchtime. The same should be observed for private communications through other media such as instant messaging and email.

D. Use of City College Resources. The City College name or logo should not be used in any announcement, advertising matter, publication, correspondence, or report in connection with personal or unofficial activities of faculty members or staff. Additionally, services and assets, including the College's name, should be exclusively utilized for official purposes by employees and officially recognized campus organizations. It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure that the College's resources, such as staff, staff time, telephones, duplicating services, cash, computing equipment, other equipment, supplies, and vehicles, are used only for Official School-related activities.
